

Each lesson students are marked present with a number 1-4. This allows us to monitor attitudes to learning every lesson, identifying any concerns swiftly. We are then able to organise intervention within the classroom and mentoring through Sixth Form to support students in overcoming difficulties. This allows all to succeed.

To be an outstanding Sixth Form learner you need to be	1 = OUTSTANDING LEARNER	2 = GOOD LEARNER	3 = DEVELOPING LEARNER	4 = POTENTIAL LEARNER
ENGAGED in learning	Engagement in lessons is excellent	Engagement in lessons is good and allows the lesson to flow smoothly	Engagement in lessons is inconsistent. Does not always take an active part in lessons	Appears disinterested in the lesson
Studying at HOME (minimum 5 hours per subject per week)	Every effort to extend home learning is made	Classwork/ home learning shows care and attention, though has room for further development	Classwork/home learning shows some care and attention, though the minimum is completed	Home learning is incomplete / not completed to an adequate standard
PREPARED and ORGANISED	Arrives at the lesson well prepared with appropriate notes, files and equipment	Has essential equipment for lessons though may need support to organise files and notes	Is sometimes missing essential equipment for lessons.	No attempt to arrive with basic equipment necessary
Be prepared to CONTRIBUTE to help you to learn from others	Exceptional contribution to class learning	Makes a positive contribution to class learning	Attempts on occasion to make a positive contribution to class	Very few valuable contributions made in lessons
Able to REFLECT on what went well and how to improve further	Uses feedback given by the teacher to make higher than expected progress	Uses feedback given by the teacher to improve learning	Rarely uses feedback from teacher	No evidence of reaction to teacher feedback
Be PUNCTUAL and have excellent ATTENDANCE	Exceptional attendance and punctuality	Generally very good punctuality and attendance	Concerns regarding attendance and punctuality	Serious concerns regarding attendance and punctuality
RESPECT all in our community.	Shows upmost respect towards all members of the school	Shows respect towards all members of the school	Is respectful to most members of the school community	Can be disrespectful at times to students and/or staff